Couple Bought Only One Ticket to Win the Jackpot

BISMARCK —A Walsh county couple claimed the $420,000 Wild Card 2 Jackpot today at the Lottery office in Bismarck.

“They were nervous and overjoyed at the same time. A wonderful couple that spoke highly of their children, grandchildren, and the community where they live,” said Attorney General Wayne Stenehjem, who handed the couple their check. The Lottery is a division of the Attorney General’s office. The couple said they had purchased only one Wild Card 2 ticket, along with one ticket for Powerball and Hot Lotto, at the Amoco station in Michigan, ND.

In addition to the Wild Card 2 jackpot win in North Dakota, there were two $5,000 winning tickets sold here for the same drawing and another Wild Card 2 $5,000 winning ticket sold for the drawing on July 16, 2005.
